

IN CONGRESS, July 4, 1776

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America,

“When in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.”

“We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.--That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, --That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness”

Since the signing of the Declaration of Independence, our rights as citizens of the United States have been debated, contested, amended, and documented. The Bill of Rights, the first ten amendments of the U.S. Constitution, establish our basic civil rights. Later amendments and court decision have continued the process of defining our human and civil rights.

It is in this grand historical tradition that we, the Natural Law PAC aka Water For Fighting PAC, re-submit a draft of the proposed California “Unalienable” Bill of Rights initiative measure to the Attorney General with a written request that a Title and Summary of the chief purpose and points of the proposed initiative be prepared (Section 9002).

California’s Unalienable Bill of Rights Initiative 2012 Proposed Text

SECTION 1 (a). We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain revealed Unalienable Rights, from conception to natural death, that among these are Life, Liberty, acquiring, possessing, and protecting property, and pursuing and obtaining safety, happiness, and privacy from government.

(b). The State of California shall make no law prohibiting the free exercise of the People's revealed exclusive UNALIENABLE RIGHTS to Life or abridging the People's exclusive "UNALIENABLE RIGHTS" to Life, Production, Distribution, Use and Consumption of air, CO2, water, food, habitat for humanity, universal health self-care and energy generating natural resources.

(c). The State of California shall not levy any taxes, fees, assessments or fines on the People's exclusive "UNALIENABLE RIGHTS" to Life, Production, Distribution, Use and Consumption of air, CO2, water, food, habitat for humanity, universal health self-care and energy generating natural resources.

(d). The State of California, upon approval by the electorate, shall repeal the 1970 California Environmental Bill of Rights (CEQA), the 1976 California Coastal Act (Prop. 20), California Endangered Species Act (CESA), California Global Warming Solution Act (AB32), California Sustainable Development Act (SB-375), California Air Resource Board (CARB), CA/EPA (1991), and the Reproductive Privacy Act of 2002; the State of California will expunge all references and all citations from the repealed laws and regulatory agencies policies found within the California Public Resource Code and Health and Safety Code.

(e). The People of California, individually, shall have the exclusive UNALIENABLE RIGHT to NULLIFY Federal powers not specifically delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, or to the People.

NOTE: Please note that the "legal" definitions used for this proposed CA "Unalienable" Bill of Rights initiative are found below. We respectfully request that the Attorney General cite appropriately in the pending Title: "CA "UNALIENABLE" Bill of Rights." initiative.

UNALIENABLE

The state of a thing or right which cannot be sold. Things which are not in commerce, as public roads, are in their nature unalienable. Some things are unalienable, in consequence of particular provisions in the law forbidding their sale or transfer, as pensions granted by the government. The natural rights of life and liberty are UNALIENABLE. Bouviere's Law Dictionary 1856 Edition

Unalienable: incapable of being alienated, that is, sold and transferred. Black's Law Dictionary Sixth Edition, page 1523

You can not surrender, sell or transfer unalienable rights, they are a gift from the creator to the individual and cannot under any circumstances be surrendered or taken. All individuals have unalienable rights.

Inalienable rights: Rights which are not capable of being surrendered or transferred without the consent of the one possessing such rights. Morrison v. State, Mo. App., 252 S.W.2d 97, 101.

You can surrender, sell or transfer inalienable rights if you consent either actually or constructively. Inalienable rights are not inherent in man and can be alienated by government. Persons have inalienable rights. Most state constitutions recognize only inalienable rights.
